The Sword in the Stone

Become one with the Knights and the Faery Ladies of the Fortunate Isles

A life changing experience...

Prepare yourself for an intense mystical experience. Study the Grail Quest and practice the Magic of Avalon right at the heart of the myth: at Halloween in Glastonbury, UK 2010

1. Imagine yourself involved in the Grail Quest amidst of the Knights and Faeries, align yourself with the powerful archetypes of Arthurian Myth, and get access to their powers of transformation. During this workshop you will accomplish powerful magical work which will cause strong healing effects in your daily life. Spiritual exercises and Arthurian Magic are build into the ongoing rituals of this workshop.
2. Calling up the Mists which give access to the Otherworld; summoning the Dragon Powers – walking between the worlds is one of the basic skills to master, if you aim to become a powerful magician. Calling up the Mists is opening yourself up to the Mythological Realms that are a part of your psyche. Our subconscious mind can be largely affected by Mythology, and working with this part of yourself frees strong energies, and resolves personal blockages. The Dragon Powers can be equalled to the Kundalini forces, and they will give you access to wonderful magical skills.
3. Become deeply involved in the mystical experiences of Courtly Love. Courtly Love is an attitude towards the opposite sex. Working in trance from this attitude, you will get access to a hidden technique, which makes it possible to contact the Faery Realm. In this way you create a strong connection with the source of Inner Plane wisdom, sometimes also called the Holy Guardian Angel, the Higher Self or the Inner God.

4. The Mists of Avalon is a non-residential temple-retreat in which you will be participating in an ongoing mystery play. Mystery plays were practiced throughout the ages in various religious, magical and esoteric circles. They are the forerunners of modern theatre. In a mystery play, the story line builds up towards a Misterium or a Miracle. Mystery plays are a method of making a personal connection to the realm of miracles yourself, in order to these transformations yourself and their healing powers will manifest in your own life.
5. Become involved in the Brotherhood of the Table Round. The Round Table is an important archetype for the human society as a whole. Although we differ, and have our own unique talents, we meet as equals in the Hall of the High King. We share our unique wisdom, so that this becomes accessible to the entire community.
6. Align yourself with the Grail, find your unique connection with your personal Grail Quest, and witness the miracle of Merlin's Enclosure. Participating in the Grail Quest raises divine powers. This will start off the 'Healing of the Wounded Land'. Your life is your wounded land: the landscape of your life experiences. The Miracle of Merlin's Enclosure is an archaic mystery which will be revealed during the Mystery play on the Saturday evening on the top of the Glastonbury's Tor.
